SCHEDULED PERSONAL PROPERTY INSURANCE - HOMEOWNERS

What's the point of having nice things if you have to worry about losing them?

Protect the worth of your cherished items by adding a scheduled personal property endorsement to your homeowners policy.

Protect the things that matter to you

Look around your house. What are the items that are most precious to you? Your homeowners insurance generally covers the contents of your home. However, there are specified limits on certain items such as jewelry, paintings, antiques, collections, musical instruments and silverware. For broader protection of your most valuable items you may want to add a scheduled personal property endorsement to your homeowners policy. You can do this by making a list of your cherished possessions that may need more coverage than your current policy provides.

What if something bad happens

If there is damage to your covered items or if they are stolen, you can be confident knowing you are fully covered. And more good news, there is no deductible with this insurance.

Coverage that fits your needs

A scheduled personal property endorsement is tailored to meet your specific needs. The name of this insurance may not exactly roll off your tongue, but knowing it's in place can certainly help you sleep better at night.

How do I make a claim?

At Safeco, there is no "weekend." We're here to assist you, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Just call 1-800-332-3226.
